

IT MAY STOP THE WEDDING.

TROUBLE BETWEEN MR. VAN SALZAN AND THE GIBBINGS.

He Sold the Engagement Ring, Got Drunk and Beat His Bride Betrothed—Her Daughter Interfered with a Fitter, and the Police Intervene at a Very Oppressive Moment for Mr. Van Salzan.

William Van Salzan, a brawny longshoreman, looked as if he had been run over by a train of cars and then straightened out in a wringing machine when he was marched up before Justice Gorman in the Tombs Police Court this morning.

His eyes were in burning. Great chunks of flesh were cut out of his face and his clothes hung about him, tattered and melancholy looking.

"What is the matter, William?" asked the magistrate.

"Nothing now. I am happy just at present, but I had a little trouble with a wildcat last night, and I got the worst of it. Send me to prison, but don't send me back to her," he concluded plaintively.

Policeman McCarthy, who arrested William, explained the case in a different light. He said that between 10 and 11 o'clock last night Bleeker street was aroused by shrieks of "Murder!" "Fire!" "Watch!" and "Police!"

endeavoring to locate the cries, he heard the crash of furniture and crockery in a little restaurant on the ground floor of a lodging-house at 23 Bleeker street, just opposite the Florence Mission.

McCarthy tried to get in, but the door was locked. While he was knocking for admission a tremendous crash indicated that the stove had been torn down together.

He could not break in the door. Policemen Foley responded. Together they broke in a window and clambered into the restaurant. They could see no one there. A swinging oil lamp dimly illuminated a scene of dire confusion.

The floor was littered with wrecked furniture and broken dishes. The small stove continued to burn quietly, although it had been knocked over and thrown in a corner.

While investigating, the policeman heard a squealing and screaming behind the little center counter. Going to investigate, there they found two women and a man twisted up in a hard knot, pummeling one another for dear life.

The man was underneath. With great difficulty the officers untied him, and then the women insisted on having Van Salzan arrested.

Mrs. Leopoldine Gibbins, the proprietress of the restaurant and the lodging-house, and her eighteen-year old daughter were the other combatants.

Mrs. Gibbins told a sad tale of woe. Van Salzan lodged with her, and during his leisure hours made love to her. She reproached. On Sunday he proposed and she accepted him. Monday he bought the ring. Tuesday he borrowed it again and pawned it. He spent the proceeds in rum and returned to her very much intoxicated last night.

She upbraided him for his heartless conduct. He hit her with a sugar bowl. Her daughter struck him with a pitcher. Then he sailed in to whip them both, but got the worst of it. He was arrested and locked up in the Mulberry street station-house last night.

Mrs. Gibbins has evidently relented and does not want him punished, as she did not appear to prosecute this morning.

Justice Gorman remanded the prisoner, however, and directed the officer to have the women brought to court to appear against Van Salzan.

FIREMEN HAD TO HUSTLE.

A SUCCESSION OF ALARMS CALLED THEM IN THE EARLY MORNING.

About 1 o'clock this morning Policeman John J. Bates, of the Mulberry street squad, saw a streak of flame shooting out of Henry Lentz's saloon at 196 Centre street.

He ran across the street and sent out an alarm from a box on the corner of Howard and Centre streets.

Returning he ran up a flight of stairs on the outside of the building and aroused the saloon-keeper, the latter's sister and her two children, who were asleep on the floor above the saloon.

Thanks to Bates's vigilance, they escaped easily. The flames had gained no great headway, and the fire was extinguished in about twenty minutes.

The police estimate Mr. Lentz's loss at $800. He places it at $2,000. One hundred dollars will cover the damage to the building, which is a three-story structure.

There were no other tenants in the house, and the fire was confined to the saloon. At 4 o'clock this morning fire broke out on S. B. Gedney's wharfright shop on the ground floor of 317 West Thirtieth street. It is believed to have been started by a live coal from the forge. About $1,000 damage was done before it was put out.

Still another fire broke out at 4:40 A. M. in Joseph Lewis's cigar store on the ground floor of the five-story brick tenement, 203 East Ninety-seventh street. Mr. Lewis's stock was damaged $500 and the building $600.

PULLMANS TO SOUTH FERRY. The Broadway Cars May Now Run On Fast Bowling Green.

Within a short time the inconvenience which passengers on the Broadway cars have experienced in being obliged to transfer from the cars to the stages plying between Bowling Green and South Ferry will be done away with.

The Broadway road has purchased the little jigger line which formerly ran from Vesey and Church streets to the ferry, the franchise of which departed the Broadway line from extending its route to the water.

The purchase was completed yesterday at the office of the Broadway road, at 761 Seventh avenue, between the stockholders of the two lines, and the price paid was $350,000 in bonds, which makes it virtually a cash transaction as no stock of the combined roads was taken in payment.

Connections will be made at once at Bowling Green, and within a month the Broadway cars will run directly to South Ferry by way of State street, returning therefrom by Whitehall street.

Nothing to Hinder the Big Show. P. T. Barnum was made happy to-day by receiving from Mayor Grant permission to have his big parade through the city on March 22.

A YOUNG MAN WHO BORROWS.

HE IS SOMETIMES ALBERT MORRIS AND MAY BE ALBERT MEYERHEIM.

At Any Rate He Has Swindled Many Too Confiding Dry-Goods Men, and New York Detectives Are Looking for Him—His False Pretensions of Connection with a Well-Known Providence Firm.

Inspector Byrnes's detectives are looking for a young man who has been going about the city for some time past swindling the dry-goods and hardware men out of small sums of money.

He has been representing himself as a clerk in the employ of Ladd & Co., a well-known firm of Providence, R. I., and gives various names, the usual one being Albert Morris.

He gets money by telling the people whom he visits that he is short of funds and wants enough to get him home. He claims that he has been travelling for the firm and unexpectedly ran out of coin.

The police here believe that his real name is Albert Meyerheim, and that he is a man formerly employed by Ladd & Co., who was discharged for dishonesty. They say that he was arrested some time ago at Plainfield, N. J., for the same offense—that of swindling a merchant there out of a small sum of money; but the police there, not knowing him, let him go, and he was driven out of town. He was last seen at Dunellen, N. J.

Frequently, when he could not see a member of the firm, he would give the book-keeper or the cashier the grand razzle-dazzle by borrowing a small sum for current expenses, and returning it. He would always promise to bring back the amount of the loan next day.

He would also, in order to strengthen his case, always tell the bookkeeper or member of the firm to telegraph to Ladd & Co., Providence, and make inquiries about him if they doubted his story. This they occasionally did after he had gone out.

The case was put in the hands of Inspector Byrnes by Ladd & Co., who were annoyed by the numerous complaints which they received from this city.

There are some of the people whom Morris, or Meyerheim, swindled: Hermann Neuling, of 38 North street; Schuyler & Schults, of Church and White streets; V. Lehmann, of Genesee & Wickham, 635 Broadway; George O'Keefe, of Teft, Neller & Co., 326 Broadway; W. S. Holbrook, of Wilbur & Hastings, 40 Fulton street; Cohn & Baer, 35 Bleeker street; George L. Jordy, 450 Broadway; and J. Denore, 336 Bloomsfield street, Hoboken; M. Sparber, 44 Seventh avenue; Joseph, Search & Co., 44 East Fifty-second street; a number of other clerks and book-keepers.

The detectives are closely on the trail of the swindler and expect to catch him at his tricks before long.

SURPRISED THE IRON TRADE.

EFFECT IN THIS CITY OF THE READING COMPANY'S FAILURE.

The announcement of the failure of the big Reading Iron Works, of Reading, Philadelphia and Camden, has caused no small amount of commotion in trade circles in this city, where this corporation was regarded as one of the most solid and reliable concerns in the business.

It was said this morning at the office of the agents in this city, Pauson & Rogers, 39 Gold street, that although the failure was a great surprise to them it could probably be attributed to the continued dullness in the iron trade during the past year, especially in the winter, which was one of the largest products of the bankrupt company.

There are many stockholders of the Reading Railroad, it is said, who are also interested in the Reading Iron Works.

The agents could not explain how the iron works came to be largely in debt to the Reading Railroad Company, as the consolidation of judgments to the amount of $140,000 would show. Most of the creditors are Philadelphia houses, and they will hold a meeting in that city to-morrow.

It is believed that the company will settle its liabilities and continue.

THE HUSBAND OF MAGGIE MITCHELL.

His Own Declaration in Response to a Story from Chicago.

A despatch from Chicago printed in this morning's World announced that Maggie Mitchell, the actress, who reports as about to sue her husband, Henry Padlock, for divorce, has once before been married and has once before been divorced.

According to the story Mrs. Mitchell, away back in the fifties, fell in love with a stranger, eloped with him and was married to him on a Saturday night, returned to her stage duties and her mother on the following Monday and never after that held intercourse with her husband.

Years afterwards, in Chicago, through her lawyer, Judge Robert Wilson, she obtained a divorce, and so quietly that the fact was never made public.

According to J. H. McKiever and Louis B. Sharpe, the Chicago fire destroyed the records of the case.

All this, it is claimed, was kept from her present husband, but Mr. Padlock says differently. "To an Evening World reporter to-day the husband of the popular 'Fanchon' spoke these words:

"You may say this, and nothing more—that I know all about my wife."

MISSING MANAGER SPOUL.

He Went to Lunch on Monday and Has Not Been Seen Since.

William D. Sproul, manager of the fruit department of Messrs. Austin Nichols & Co., wholesale grocers, at Hudson and Jay streets is missing.

On Monday he left his place of business to go to lunch, and dropped into 29 Harrison street a little later.

Remaining there but a short time, he started to return to his place of business, but has not reached there yet.

To-day a general alarm was sent out from the Central Office asking the police to look for the missing man.

The family and friends fear that Mr. Sproul has become demented. His residence is at 72 Monticello avenue, Jersey City.

DRUGGIST HOPF A SUICIDE.

He Goes Over to Brooklyn and Takes a Big Dose of Morphine.

C. A. Hopf, a druggist, living in a furnished room at 72 Second avenue, this city, took a big dose of morphine in a saloon at 21 Tompkins avenue, Brooklyn, late last night.

He was a stranger there and surprised the saloon-keeper by saying, "This will kill me."

The family and friends fear that Mr. Sproul has become demented. His residence is at 72 Monticello avenue, Jersey City.

To-Day & To-Morrow ONLY.

In order to CLOSE OUT our entire stock of WINTER OVERCOATS and SUITS we name the following SPECIAL SACRIFICE PRICES to tempt the most prudent buyers.

We are induced to make this phenomenal CUT in prices by the fact that we have not the necessary space to properly display our magnificent assortment of SPRING STYLES which are now arriving daily. We must have MORE ROOM for our GRAND SPRING OPENING MARCH 15.

SPECIAL BARGAINS.

Men's All-Wool Business Suits, reduced from $15.00 to $8.00
Imported Cheviot Business Suits, reduced from $22.00 to $10.00
English Worsted 4-button Cut-away Suits, reduced from $25.00 to $12.00
Finest Imported Pressed and Business Suits, reduced from $40.00 to $15.00
Elegant Silk-Lined Prince Albert Suits, reduced from $60.00 to $18.00
Satin-Lined Full-Dress Suits (swallow tail), reduced from $75.00 to $20.00

We have reduced the price on every Overcoat in our establishment to less than ONE-HALF COST OF MAKING, having determined to avoid "carrying over" a single Overcoat if possible.

Superb Silk-Lined Montague Overcoats, reduced from $75 to $20.00
Imported Satin-Lined Elysian Overcoats, reduced from $55 to $18.00
Gentle & Wickham, 635 Broadway; George O'Keefe, of Teft, Neller & Co., 326 Broadway; W. S. Holbrook, of Wilbur & Hastings, 40 Fulton street; Cohn & Baer, 35 Bleeker street; George L. Jordy, 450 Broadway; and J. Denore, 336 Bloomsfield street, Hoboken; M. Sparber, 44 Seventh avenue; Joseph, Search & Co., 44 East Fifty-second street; a number of other clerks and book-keepers.

The detectives are closely on the trail of the swindler and expect to catch him at his tricks before long.

Bring This Advertisement with You and Compare It with the Goods we Show.

A. H. King & Co.
LEADING AMERICAN CLOTHIERS,
627 and 629 Broadway.

Carpets.

We are showing a complete line of new Spring Styles of Carpets in all grades.

Fine Axminsters as low as $1.75.
Five frame Body Brussels at 95 cents.
Wiltons, Gobelins, Moquettes, Tapestries, and Ingrains at proportionately low prices.
Large assortment of India and Smyrna Rugs and Mats.

Lord & Taylor,
Broadway and Twentieth Street.

THE EAGLE PASS MURDER MYSTERY.
The Body of a Fourth Murdered Woman Found While Dredging the River.

Special to THE EVENING WORLD. EAGLE PASS, Tex., March 6.—While dredging the river yesterday for more definite proof of the identification of the three murdered women found Monday, the body of another woman was found in the same locality.

She also had her head split and was weighted with rocks. She is supposed to be a young girl, probably eighteen years old.

The first body, supposed to have been identified as that of Mrs. Alexander Tapez, is yet unnamed, as Mrs. Tapez and her children are safe on the ranch, and the whole affair is a deep mystery.

Readers of Harper's Bazar will be sorry to hear of the death of its bright editress, Miss Mary L. Booth, which occurred at her home, 101 East Fifty-ninth street, yesterday.

Miss Booth was born in 1831, and in her early womanhood won a wide reputation for translations of works of the best French writers. During the war she took an active part in the anti-slavery agitation. She had been editress of Harper's Bazar since it started, twenty-one years ago.

Notorious "Crooks" Jailed. (Special to THE EVENING WORLD.) TRENTON, March 6.—William Faraday, the safe-breaker, "Kid" Welch, the porch-climber, and Patton Hooper, the shrewd leader of a notorious Philadelphia gang, went to the Penitentiary yesterday for terms of from five to ten years each for labor in State Prison.

The Umbrella Point's Victim. John Schults, the Third Avenue car conductor, who was stabbed under the eye with the point of an umbrella yesterday morning by an unknown passenger, is still unconscious at the Presbyterian Hospital. He is likely to lose the sight of his injured eye.

Fair, Cooler, High Winds. WASHINGTON, March 6.—Weather indications: Fair, cooler, high winds; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing.

Deaths of a Clever Editress. Readers of Harper's Bazar will be sorry to hear of the death of its bright editress, Miss Mary L. Booth, which occurred at her home, 101 East Fifty-ninth street, yesterday.

Miss Booth was born in 1831, and in her early womanhood won a wide reputation for translations of works of the best French writers. During the war she took an active part in the anti-slavery agitation. She had been editress of Harper's Bazar since it started, twenty-one years ago.

Notorious "Crooks" Jailed. (Special to THE EVENING WORLD.) TRENTON, March 6.—William Faraday, the safe-breaker, "Kid" Welch, the porch-climber, and Patton Hooper, the shrewd leader of a notorious Philadelphia gang, went to the Penitentiary yesterday for terms of from five to ten years each for labor in State Prison.

The Umbrella Point's Victim. John Schults, the Third Avenue car conductor, who was stabbed under the eye with the point of an umbrella yesterday morning by an unknown passenger, is still unconscious at the Presbyterian Hospital. He is likely to lose the sight of his injured eye.

Fair, Cooler, High Winds. WASHINGTON, March 6.—Weather indications: Fair, cooler, high winds; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing.

Deaths of a Clever Editress. Readers of Harper's Bazar will be sorry to hear of the death of its bright editress, Miss Mary L. Booth, which occurred at her home, 101 East Fifty-ninth street, yesterday.

Miss Booth was born in 1831, and in her early womanhood won a wide reputation for translations of works of the best French writers. During the war she took an active part in the anti-slavery agitation. She had been editress of Harper's Bazar since it started, twenty-one years ago.

Notorious "Crooks" Jailed. (Special to THE EVENING WORLD.) TRENTON, March 6.—William Faraday, the safe-breaker, "Kid" Welch, the porch-climber, and Patton Hooper, the shrewd leader of a notorious Philadelphia gang, went to the Penitentiary yesterday for terms of from five to ten years each for labor in State Prison.

The Umbrella Point's Victim. John Schults, the Third Avenue car conductor, who was stabbed under the eye with the point of an umbrella yesterday morning by an unknown passenger, is still unconscious at the Presbyterian Hospital. He is likely to lose the sight of his injured eye.

Fair, Cooler, High Winds. WASHINGTON, March 6.—Weather indications: Fair, cooler, high winds; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing.

B. Altman & Co.,

Are now displaying in their MEN'S FURNISHINGS

An elegant assortment of new BATH ROBES in handsome and exclusive designs, which are offered at VERY ATTRACTIVE PRICES.

Also a new line of SCOTCH FLANNEL PAJAMAS, at $3.75 per Suit.

And an additional supply of Fancy Trimmed Night Shirts (superior to any heretofore offered) at 70c. and 85c. each.

18th St., 19th St. and 6th Ave. (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

Le Boutillier Bros.
BLACK GOODS.

Are now showing one of the most complete lines of Black Goods in the city, many exclusive in design. We invite attention to the following:

Lupin's Hemstitch Veiling, in borders of Bengal, Sorrento and Satin Effects, from $1.00 to $3.00 per yard.

Camel's-Hair Grenadine, from 75c. to $2.00 per yard. Also new designs in Black and White, in Plaids, Stripes and Borders.

ONLY PLACE OF BUSINESS, 48, 50 and 52 West 23d St.

COLLEGES, SCHOOLS, ETC.

BANJO. Violin, Guitar and Singing Lessons. WATSON, 15 E. 14th.

ITHACA DEMOCRATS ELECT A MAYOR. A Clerical Error is Discovered Which Gives Them a Majority of Six.

(Special to THE EVENING WORLD.) ITHACA, N. Y., March 6.—The Democratic Mayor is elected contrary to last night's anticipations.

It is discovered this morning that a clerical error was made in the Fourth Ward. When corrected it gave the Democrats a majority of 6 votes.

It is said that the Republicans had a number of votes counted which had not been registered.

SAILORS LASHED TO THE RIGGING. Rescued by a Life-Saving Crew After a Night of Suffering.

(Special to THE EVENING WORLD.) WELLSFLEET, Mass., March 6.—The fishing schooner John H. McManus was sighted ashore at daybreak yesterday with her men lashed to the rigging.

The men were rescued by a crew from the Cahoon's Hollow Life-Saving Station. The men had been in their perilous position all night and but for the mildness of the weather must have perished from exposure.

DR. SANDEN'S FAMOUS ELECTRIC BELT. FOR WEAK, NERVOUS MEN. AN EVER-FAILING CURE FOR ALL PERSONAL WEAKNESS.

All men debilitated through indiscretions or otherwise who are unable to cure or refrain from by this improved ELECTRIC BELT AND SANDEN'S SPECIFIC, will find permanent relief. It gives a mild, continuous, soothing current of electricity through the system, restoring them to HEALTH and vigor.

STRENGTH. Also, for Lame Back, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaints, etc. For a full and complete description of this Belt, and for a list of the many testimonials, send for a free copy of the "SANDEN'S SPECIFIC" to GEO. BOYD, 3423 3d Ave., N. Y.

S.S.S. SWIFT'S SPECIFIC cured me of malignant Blood Poison after I had been treated in vain with old so-called remedies of Mercury and Potash. S. S. S. not only cured the Blood Poison, but relieved the Rheumatism which was caused by the poisonous minerals. GEO. BOYD, 3423 3d Ave., N. Y.

Successful developed on my daughter, swelling and lumps on her neck. We gave her SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, and the result was wonderful and the cure prompt. S. A. DEARMOND, Cleveland, Tenn.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC is entirely a vegetable remedy, and is the only medicine which permanently cures the Blood Poison, Rheumatism, Cancer and Contagious Blood Poison. Write to Geo. Boyd, 3423 3d Ave., N. Y., for a full and complete description of this Belt, and for a list of the many testimonials, send for a free copy of the "SANDEN'S SPECIFIC" to GEO. BOYD, 3423 3d Ave., N. Y.

SPORTING. CLIFTON, N. J., RACES—MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY. Trains leave for Erie R.R. 2:30 p.m., and foot Chambers st., New York. JAMES MCGOWAN, G. H. ENGLISH, Secretaries.

GUTTENBURG RACES. Racing every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, rain or shine. First race at 1:30 P.M. sharp. Cars direct to track from Hoboken ferries. J. B. WHITEHEAD, Secretary.

FAIR, COOLER, HIGH WINDS. WASHINGTON, March 6.—Weather indications: Fair, cooler, high winds; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing.

Deaths of a Clever Editress. Readers of Harper's Bazar will be sorry to hear of the death of its bright editress, Miss Mary L. Booth, which occurred at her home, 101 East Fifty-ninth street, yesterday.

Miss Booth was born in 1831, and in her early womanhood won a wide reputation for translations of works of the best French writers. During the war she took an active part in the anti-slavery agitation. She had been editress of Harper's Bazar since it started, twenty-one years ago.

Notorious "Crooks" Jailed. (Special to THE EVENING WORLD.) TRENTON, March 6.—William Faraday, the safe-breaker, "Kid" Welch, the porch-climber, and Patton Hooper, the shrewd leader of a notorious Philadelphia gang, went to the Penitentiary yesterday for terms of from five to ten years each for labor in State Prison.

The Umbrella Point's Victim. John Schults, the Third Avenue car conductor, who was stabbed under the eye with the point of an umbrella yesterday morning by an unknown passenger, is still unconscious at the Presbyterian Hospital. He is likely to lose the sight of his injured eye.

Fair, Cooler, High Winds. WASHINGTON, March 6.—Weather indications: Fair, cooler, high winds; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing; rain or snow, with a cold wave, prevailing.

FRIEL & HAND,

See Our Plush Suits for $38.00
Bed Lounges in Raw Silk 4.00
Six-Foot Extension Tables 3.75

FRIEL & HAND,
880, 891, 893 3d Ave.
Mount Vernon Branch, 55 and 57 4th Ave.

EHRRICH'S.
SPECIAL SALE OF SMALL SIZES IN

KID GLOVES.
50 dozen 5 and 7 hook Foster Lacing Gloves, in tan and black, sizes 5½, 5¾ and 6, formerly sold at 98c. per pair; reduced to 50c.

75 dozen real Kid Gloves, in 3 and 5 button lengths, all shades, formerly sold at $1.50 per pair; reduced to 69c.

60 doz. 5 and 7 hook Foster Lacing Gloves, in colors and black, worth $1.50 and $1.75 per pair; reduced to 98c.

FREE STAGES TO AND FROM 6TH AVE. AND 23D ST.

EHRRICH BROS.,
8th Ave. and 24th St.

JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE. CANNOT FAIL TO SATISFY THE MOST FASTIDIOUS. JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE.

Full lines of the above shoes for sale by the following dealers in NEW YORK CITY: J. Rogers, 236 Bowery, near Prince st.; J. B. Rogers, 236 Bowery, near Prince st.; J. B. Rogers, 236 Bowery, near Prince st.

In BROOKLYN: C. Heston, 613 Fulton st.; J. B. Rogers, 236 Bowery, near Prince st.; J. B. Rogers, 236 Bowery, near Prince st.

In NEWARK: D. Wilson, 850 Broad st.

In JERSEY CITY: J. W. Kidd, 127 Newark av.; A. H. Heston, Jr., 54 Newark av.

In PATERSON: Meyer Bros., 181 to 187 Main st.

DR. SANDEN'S FAMOUS ELECTRIC BELT. FOR WEAK, NERVOUS MEN. AN EVER-FAILING CURE FOR ALL PERSONAL WEAKNESS.

All men debilitated through indiscretions or otherwise who are unable to cure or refrain from by this improved ELECTRIC BELT AND SANDEN'S SPECIFIC, will find permanent relief. It gives a mild, continuous, soothing current of electricity through the system, restoring them to HEALTH and vigor.

STRENGTH. Also, for Lame Back, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaints, etc. For a full and complete description of this Belt, and for a list of the many testimonials, send for a free copy of the "SANDEN'S SPECIFIC" to GEO. BOYD, 3423 3d Ave., N. Y.

S.S.S. SWIFT'S SPECIFIC cured me of malignant Blood Poison after I had been treated in vain with old so-called remedies of Mercury and Potash. S. S. S. not only cured the Blood Poison,